The MLS Consumer Portal is a customizable, public-facing website, where consumers can search for Open Houses and Active listings, find their Agent or research local school and neighborhood information. Best of all, the leads and inquiries go directly back to the Agent and/or Broker of Record. Include our REALM Advertising Network and now your MLS Portal is generating revenue and working for you! The Real Estate & Living Media (REALM) network gives websites in the home and real estate categories access to some of the nation's largest and most respected advertisers.
